Blake Taylor is an experienced custom home builder. Through the lens of timeless and classic architecture, his contemporary floor plans and new constructions create modern, unique, individual homes of lasting worth for many generations to come.

He is very pleased to be moving to a new level as he builds homes in Kinderlou. Using this opportunity to study anew, research and observe, he says his creative options are endless! Let this artist and builder put inspiration to craft as he creates your very own custom classic Blake Taylor home from the ground up!
